

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Editorial

1. For a criminology of freedom and non-violence: a tribute to Thiago Fabres de Carvalho 09
Daniel Achutti, Mariana Weigert, Raffaella Pallamolla, Salo de Carvalho

Papers

2. Symbolic, political and practical aspects of police lethality in Rio de Janeiro and São Paulo during the Bolsonaro administration 17
André Filipe Pereira Reid dos Santos, Lucas Melo Borges de Souza, Thiago Fabres de Carvalho
3. The role of the family as a primary educational vector for responsible consumption and its challenges in the face of child marketing abuse 41
Dennis Verbicaro, Grace Baêta de Oliveira, Pastora do Socorro Teixeira Leal
4. The absence of the inspection activity in the general law of personal data protection and the ineffectiveness of the law 61
Diogo de Calasans Melo Andrade, Roberta Hora Arcieri Barreto
5. Humanist hermeneutics, judicial ethics and Bangalore principles: elements of a structuring regulation 75
Eliseu Raphael Venturi
6. Dialogues with “marginal realism” and the critique to whiteness: Why criminal procedural dogmatic “doesn’t see” the institutional racism of police management in Brazilian cities? 95
Evandro Charles Piza Duarte
7. The vulnerability’s power. Its implications for interpretation and applicability of law 121
Guillermina Leontina Sosa
8. Collateral damages in times of pandemic: concerns about the use of personal data to combat COVID-19 143
Jéssica Andrade Modesto, Marcos Ehrhardt Junior
9. Playing the fool: negotiated resolution and the plunder of rio Doce basin 163
Luciana Tasse Ferreira

10. Legal Protection of existentially	181
Maria Helena Diniz

11. Critical considerations on Artificial Intelligence liability: e-personality propositions	193
Sthéfano Bruno Santos Divino

Reviews

12. Policy judicialization, activism and judicial discretion	215
João Humberto Cesário

13. The Eternal Fascism, a review	223
José Alexandre Ricciardi Sbizera

Law in movement in perspective

14. Deep web and dark web: social implications and legal repercussions	227
Fernanda Viero da Silva, Mateus de Oliveira Fornasier, Norberto Milton Paiva Knebel

15. Evgeni Pachukanis' Law theory: 100 years of October Revolution	245
Luiz Rosado Costa, Maurício Ferreira da Cruz Júnior

16. Are we modern? Reflecting about Brazilian state and democracy from Roots of Brazil	257
Vinícius Batelli de Souza Balestra	